

The art of Italian living

Our first glance at producers from across Italy, covering Prosecco and more

Azienda Agricola Conte Collalto

Via XXIV Maggio 1
Susegana, 31058 Italy
www.cantine-collalto.it

It is a long history of love, day after day, year after year, that has woven its way into the intimate depths of our family. For over a thousand years now, the Collalto name has intertwined with the land of Treviso and with one of its noblest and far-reaching treasures, wine. The enviable history of ancient landowning nobility; intimately, unquestionably bound to its local area; showing uncompromising respect for nature and its fruits, protecting its ecosystem and the wondrous landscape that this ancient land has provided Collalto. Always aware that when one is enjoying life, time passes with incredible swiftness.

Bisol

Via Follo 33, Valdobbiadene, 31049 Italy
www.bisol.it

Bisol is the surname of the family who have been nurturing the vineyards on the steep, rolling hills of Valdobbiadene for 21 generations. In 1542, a historical document played testimony to the presence of the Bisol family as viticulturists in the area. Their top selected wines are aged with a more complex system than others: the must gets separated in four parts. They offer the possibility to visit their winery at set times, at 11am and at 4pm from Monday to Saturday and at 11am on Sunday.

Bottega SPA
