

BARON FRANCOIS HOSTS ANNUAL TASTING

Baron Francois invited customers to meet the producers on March 26th at their Annual Portfolio Tasting. Wines for 16 different regions were poured atop the Midtown Loft where the tasting was held. Food from Paris Gourmet was paired with their wines and a Portfolio Tasting Instagram frame was onsite for photo opportunities.

1. Victor Boyer, The Diva Network; Pascal Escriout, Tournesol Restaurant; and Frederic Goossens, Baron Francois
2. Benjamin Fourmon, Champagne Joseph Perrier; Michael Boccanfuso and Maurane Doumenq, Baron Francois; and Laurent Autréau, Champagne Autréau
3. Romain Roccol-"Fabre", Aix D'Espagnet and Michel D'Espagnet
4. Guests at the Midtown Loft
5. Frederic Goossens and Carrie Krieger, Baron Francois; and Pascual Vilchis, Penn Wine and Spirits

YARDEN WINES CELEBRATE PURIM FESTIVITIES

Purim was celebrated at Freemans on March 21st with Victor Schoenfeld, winemaker of Yarden Wines. Guests were invited to a tasting of different Yarden varietals while answering trivia questions about the winery. Food was passed family style and was paired with the wines. Schoenfeld spoke of each varietal and answered questions about the winery's continued sustainability initiative.

1. Vistor Schoenfeld led a wine tasting of different Yarden varietals
2. Yarden is now distributed with Skurnik Wines in NY

SANDRO BOTTEGA LEADS PROSECCO VERTICAL TASTING

Sandro Bottega, owner of Italy's Bottega SpA, invited guests to Quality Italian to taste through a vertical tasting of six vintages of Bottega's "Il Vino dei Poeti" Prosecco DOC on March 28th. Following the tasting, guests were able to sip Bottega Gold, Bottega Rosé Gold and Bottega Platinum.

1. Sandro Bottega talks about the many iniatives of Bottega SpA
2. Samples for a vertical tasting