INTERNAZIONALI D'ITALIA IN ROME: BOTTEGA WILL ATTEND AS A SPONSOR WITH ITS SPARKLING WINES

Internazionali d'Italia in Roma is one of the most popular tournaments for tennis players from all over the world. The Foro Italico complex, which houses the clay courts, is a monumental structure, perfectly integrated with the historical and artistic charm of the eternal city.

In addition to being one of the most prestigious tournaments on clay, the Rome tournament is also a Master 1000 of the international circuit and therefore guarantees a significant money prize and points to climb the Atp ranking.

In the first two weeks of May, the Foro Italico therefore sees the participation of the world's tennis elite, making the tournament a glamorous event that also attracts the world of entertainment.

In this context, Bottega winery, from Bibano di Godega (TV), is present in an aperitif corner which is open every day for about 2 hours, starting in the late afternoon. The Millesimato Bottega sparkling wine is served, while an ad hoc setting has been created with Magnum Bottega Gold, the iconic Prosecco characterised by its gilded bottle.
