PROSECCO ROSÉ BOTTEGA FOR MOTHER'S DAY

The Bottega winery in Bibano di Godega (TV) celebrates Mother's Day with Prosecco Rosé Doc Il Vino dei Poeti. This is a new sparkling wine, which maintains the freshness and versatility of Prosecco even in its rosé version, launched over a year ago on the market with excellent feedback from consumers.

Prosecco Rosé Doc Il Vino dei Poeti originates from a blend of Glera (85%) and Pinot Noir (15%). The grapes of the well-known international variety contribute to give this wine its characteristic rosé colour, more consistent perlage and greater aromatic complexity.

The new product in the Bottega range wears the traditional flame-shaped label that distinguishes the Treviso-based winery's sparkling wines.

This wine is characterised by its rosé colour and fine, persistent perlage. On the nose, the fruity scents of cherries and berries stand out, accompanying the delicate floral notes. On the palate it is fresh, lively and pleasantly dry with a good aftertaste persistence. It is a wine for the whole meal that goes excellently with starters, first courses and white meats. It is also ideal as an aperitif and as an ingredient in cocktails.

Delicate and at the same time satisfying, it is an excellent gift for Mother's Day.
