JAMES SUCKLING: EXCELLENT RATINGS FOR BOTTEGA WINES

JamesSuckling.com, an authoritative international website dedicated to the world of wine, has given excellent ratings to a wide range of wines from the Bottega cellar.

James Suckling is one of today's most authoritative wine critics, whose opinions attract the interest and respect of wine lovers, wine collectors and the entire wine industry worldwide. Suckling was the Senior Editor and European Editor-in-Chief of Wine Spectator for almost 30 years. In 2010, Suckling launched the JamesSuckling.com website, driven by the need to offer the public a more modern approach to the world of wine.

Below are the ratings published online:

- Brunello di Montalcino Docg Bottega, 2018 vintage: 94/100
- Il Vino degli Dei Amarone della Valpolicella Docg Bottega, 2019 vintage: 91/100
- Ripasso della Valpolicella Superiore Doc Bottega, vintage 2020: 91/100
- Bottega Gold Prosecco Doc, vintage 2022: 90/100
- Rosso di Montalcino Doc Bottega, vintage 2021: 90/100
- Valpolicella Classico Doc Bottega, vintage 2022: 90/100

This result has great specific value, as wines with scores of 90/100 and above are classified as outstanding. In Anglo-Saxon countries, and to some extent also in Italy, the ratings published by the most authoritative sites represent an important impulse to purchases.

Noteworthy is Bottega's ability to produce quality wines in its own cellars within different appellations: Montalcino, Valpolicella, Prosecco Doc.

Bottega

The Bottega family, which has four centuries of history in the world of wine and grappa, founded the company of the same name, which is both a winery and a distillery. It is based in Bibano di Godega (TV), 50 km north of Venice, where it produces grappas, wines and liqueurs. The grappas include fine selections of single varietals and barrique-aged spirits. Bottega's range of wines includes Prosecco, including the well-known Bottega Gold, and other sparkling wines with great personality. In separate cellars in Valpolicella, Chianti and Montalcino, Amarone, Ripasso, Chianti Gallo Nero, Brunello di Montalcino and other great reds are produced. An extensive range of fruit and cream liqueurs completes Bottega's offer. The company distributes its products in over 160 countries worldwide. For many years, Bottega S.p.A. has made an unwavering commitment to sustainability, which has led to real and concrete results in reducing its impact on the environment, while having positive impact on the society and the economy.
