Bottega SpA has opened a new prosecco bar inside Budapest Airport (BUD) in collaboration with SSP.

"The Prosecco Bar format grows stronger in the heart of Central Eastern Europe," Bottega said of the new facility. "Visit us at Terminal 2A to enjoy a break in the name of true Italian flavour."

This restaurant and café formula offers visibility to Bottega wines, spirits and liqueurs and, at the same time, promotes the wine and food culture of our country in the name of taste.

"The opening of the Prosecco Bar in Budapest is a further step in our format, which offers travellers the opportunity to informally enjoy some of the best-known Italian dishes, paired with our wines. The success in airports is a prerequisite for new openings in the near future in other important premises," said Sandro Bottega, President of Bottega S.p.A.
